XV. Happiness: Scripture References

A. John 15:9-11, “Just as the Father loves Me (Christ), so also I have impersonally unconditionally loved you. Reside in My virtue-love. If you keep My doctrines, you will reside in the sphere of My virtue-love, just as I have fulfilled the doctrines of My Father & I reside in the sphere of His virtue-love. I have taught you these things in order that My joy (sharing the happiness of God) might be in you (the believer's soul) & that your happiness might be completed (completed state of happiness)."

B. 1 John 1:4, “In fact, we write these things (Bible doctrines) in order that our state of happiness might be completed.”

C. 2 John 12, “Although having many doctrines to write to you, I do not wish to do so with paper & ink, but I anticipate coming to you & teaching face to face, that our state of happiness might be completed.”

D. Proverbs 3:13, “Happiness to the man who finds wisdom (chakmah, ie., epignosis, ‘metabolized doctrine in the soul’) and the man who gains understanding.”

E. Psalm 97:12, “Be happy in the Lord, O righteous one (the believer who possesses God’s imputed righteousness), & gives thanks for the memory of His divine integrity.”

F. John 17:13, “But now I come face to face with You (Christ addressing the Father in prayer), and these things (Bible Doctrine) I am communicating in the world that they (believers) might keep having My happiness (in the prototype divine dynasphere) having been fulfilled in themselves (operational type divine dynasphere).”

G. Romans 15:13, “Now may the God of confidence fill your soul with happiness & prosperity in the sphere of doctrine for the purpose of prospering you in the confident expectation of blessing by means of the power of the Holy Spirit.”

H. Galatians 5:22-23a, “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy (chara, “sharing the happiness of God), prosperity, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.”

I. Hebrews 12:2, “Be concentrating on Jesus Christ, our Prince-Ruler, even the One who brings us to the attainment of perfect happiness by means of doctrine, Who (the humanity of Christ) instead of His present happiness endured the Cross, having disregarded the shame (of bearing our sins & being judged by the Father), and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For begin thinking about such a Person as Jesus Christ (undiminished deity & true humanity in one Person forever), having endured such opposition by sinners against Himself, in order that you do not become fatigued (through living in the Cosmic system), fainting in your souls.”

J. 1 Peter 1:8, “Even though you do not see Him (empirical knowledge) you personally love Him, and though you do not see Him now but believe in Him (through perception & metabolization of Bible Doctrine) you greatly rejoice with happiness inexpressible and full of glory.”
