Pray To Your Father (Wenstrom)

You're breaking my heart when I see you in sorrow
You're filled with despair all the time with no hope for tomorrow
Fearing the future ahead, so lost in confusion
All seems so lost to you now, but there is a solution
Don't be afraid, hear what I say

Pray to your Father who's in heaven
The one who gave His Son for you and I
Pour out your troubles and don't worry
Tell Him what you need and give Him thanks

Then, the peace of God, beyond human conception
Will guard heart and your mind from Satan's deception
Obeying the Word of the Son and living a life that's new
So, celebrate, don't hesitate, He's waiting to hear from you
Any time, any day, that's what I say

Pray to your Father who's in heaven
The one who gave His Son for you and I
Pour out your troubles and don't worry
Tell Him what you need and give Him thanks

Now, talk to your God, to ignore Him is such a crime
You have been loved and are loved, and will be for the rest of time
Why leave in fear everyday when your Father is on your side?
The death of His Son showed His love, His loving arms are now open wide
Run to Him now, He will help you somehow

Pray to your Father who's in heaven
The one who gave His Son for you and I
Pour out your troubles and don't worry
Tell Him what you need and give Him thanks
