A Cry for Help (Wenstrom)

Please Lord help me
Because I feel so lonely
I cry these tears
Every day and night

Why Oh Lord must it be this way?
I don't understand but still I'll pray
For I will trust in You to get me through this day

But the weight of this world is upon me
I'm so confused and desperately
Asking for your help

Please oh Lord listen to my cry
Where are you? I'm crushed and I could die
No friends in sight and still I'm asking why?

But I know You love me
I cling to Your Word so I can see
Beyond this day

Oh dear Lord, please listen to my plea
Save me from this pit, I feel I'm lost at sea
I can't go on so I'm asking You to come and rescue me

Your will be done in the end
In You my God, I will depend
To help me through

Lord I'll trust in You
