Heaven (Wenstrom)

I can't wait to get to heaven
For there the Lord, He waits for me
There with all His saints and angels, I will worship at His feet

Heaven is where you'll find my Savior
Sitting on His Father's throne
His hair is white as wool, His eyes, a flame of fire
The first and last who died but came to life

There'll be no sorrow and no more tears
He conquered death for you and me at Calvary

I can't wait to get to heaven
That's the place I call my home
And home's the place, you'll find my Jesus
The Kings and kings and the Lord of lords

Heaven is where you'll find my Savior
Sitting on His Father's throne
His hair is white as wool, His eyes, a flame of fire
The first and last who died but came to life

There'll be no sorrow and no more tears
He conquered death for you and me at Calvary

I can't wait to get to heaven
For there the Lord, He waits for me
There with all His saints and angels, I will worship at His feet
I will worship at His feet
