Eleanor (Wenstrom)

Eleanor where are you going?
It seems to me you're slowly going out that door
Oh my Eleanor
Wait for me, don't leave me lonely
I cannot bear to watch you leave this way
Oh, my Eleanor

Eleanor, you know it hurts me
To have you slipping from our warm embrace
Oh my Eleanor
Pray for me like you have done everyday
I'm suffering so much that I could die
Oh my Eleanor

Don't go away, please won't stay
I have so much more to say
Like a love you

Time goes by so very fast dear
It seems wasn't long ago that we were kids
Oh my Eleanor
Heaven's where there are angels
One day they shall receive the most beautiful of all
Oh my Eleanor